

Service on receiving the delivered / reserved UTokyo library books at the General Library and Kashiwa Library is started!

Previously, the users could request to deliver the books from the other campus to their faculty libraries only. From February 15, 2021, the service is expanded to deliver the books to the General and Kashiwa Libraries too (Komaba Library will be joined after the middle of August).

Also, the reserved books can be delivered to the General and Kashiwa Libraries too.

How to request

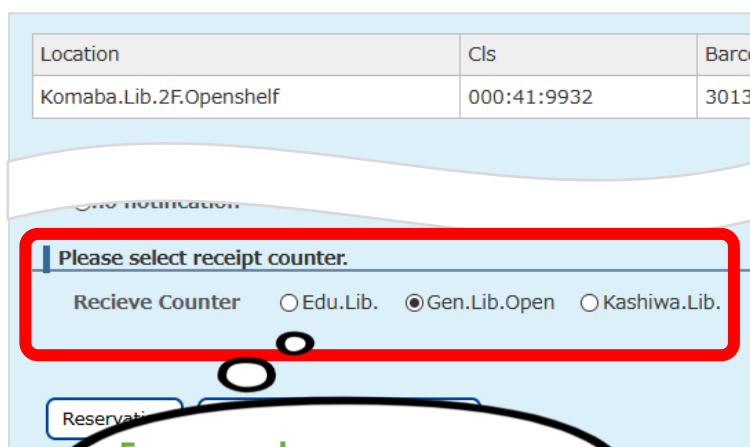

① Request via MyOPAC

After logged into MyOPAC, on the details page of the materials you wish to deliver or reserve, please press the "Reserve" button.

② Select the receiving counter

The available counters you can receive the book are displayed on the reservation page. Please choose the receiving counter.

③ Receive the books

The notice will be sent to the appointed contact information when the material is available. Please receive the book within the holding period.

For example...

Users of faculty of Education can reserve to deliver the books in the Komaba Library to the General Library.

Attention

- ✓ Previously, the "internal delivery service" is available for the books in the libraries on the other campuses. But as for temporary expedient against the novel Coronavirus infection, the users who belong to the Hongo area campus can order the books from the libraries in the Hongo area campus (excluding the General Library) to March 31, 2021 (scheduled).
- ✓ Users who don't belong to the Komaba library can't receive the delivered books at the Komaba library now. The Komaba library is scheduled to join this service after the middle of August.
